

Welcome to this Ebola introduction
training!

What is the objective
of this training?

Click on the icon.

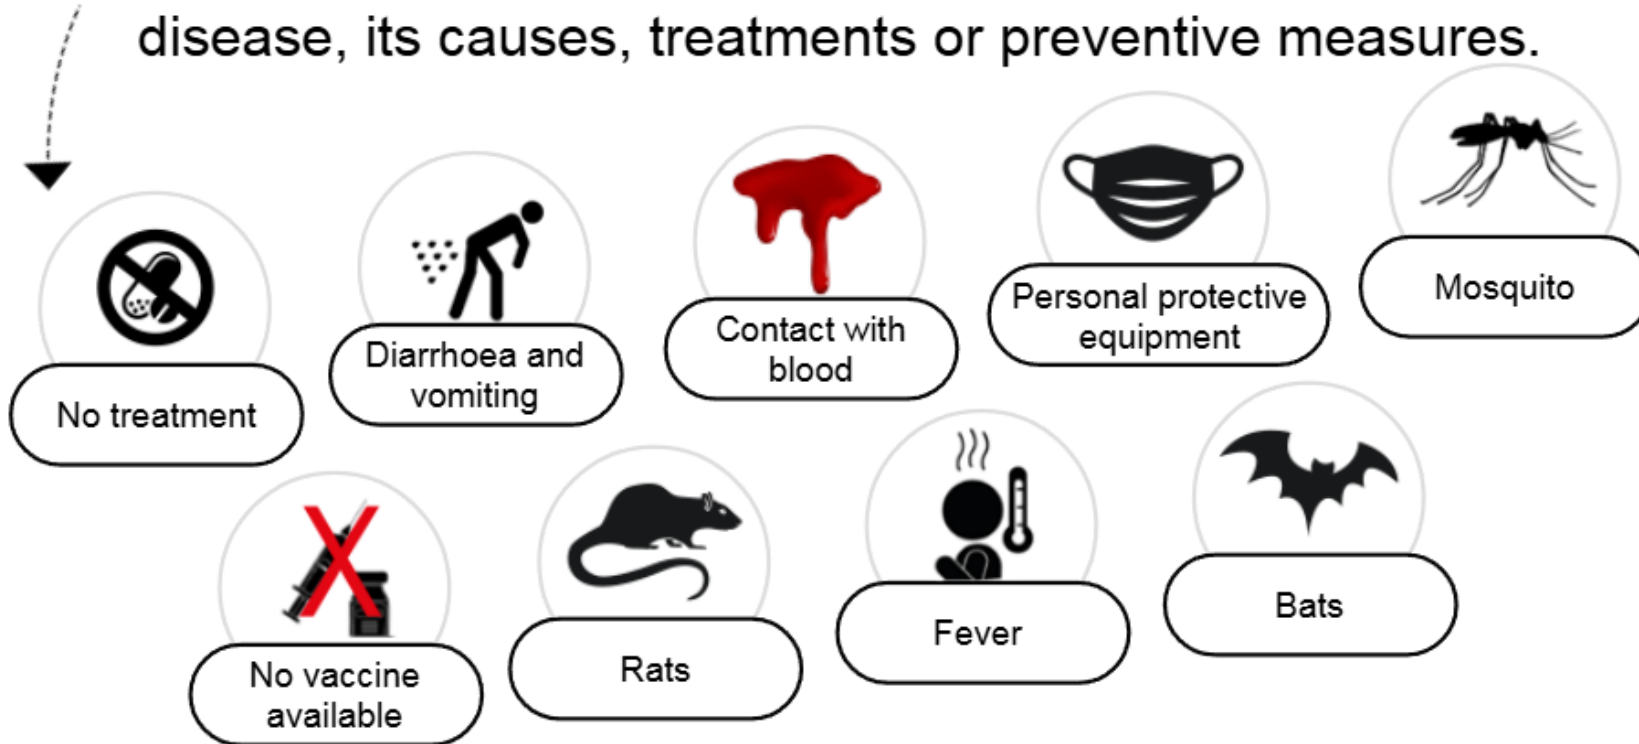

What is the objective of this training?

At the end of this module, participants will be able to define the Ebola disease and identify its symptoms, treatment and preventive measures.

Click on the icon.

Click on the hut to continue.

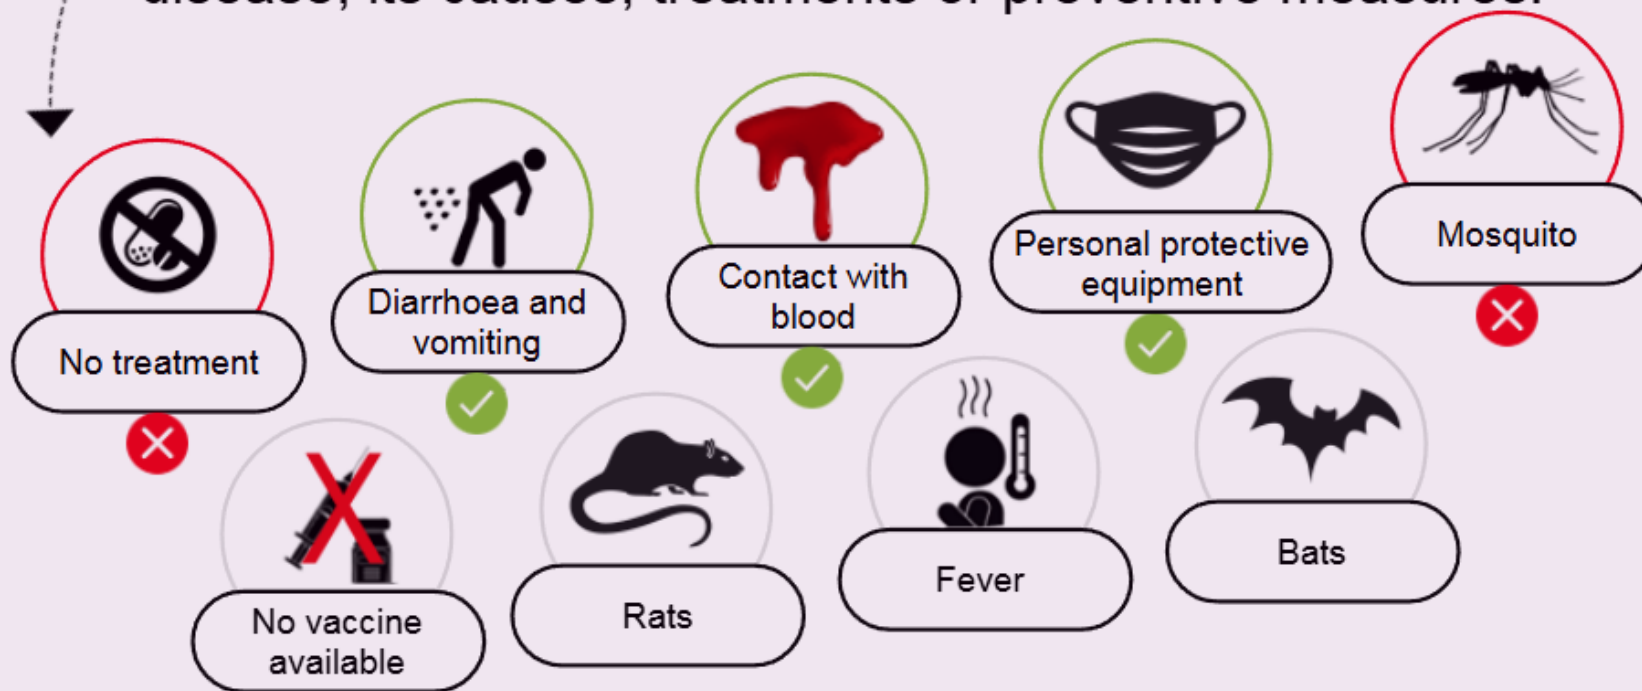

Click on icons related to Ebola: the signs and symptoms of the disease, its causes, treatments or preventive measures.

VALIDATE

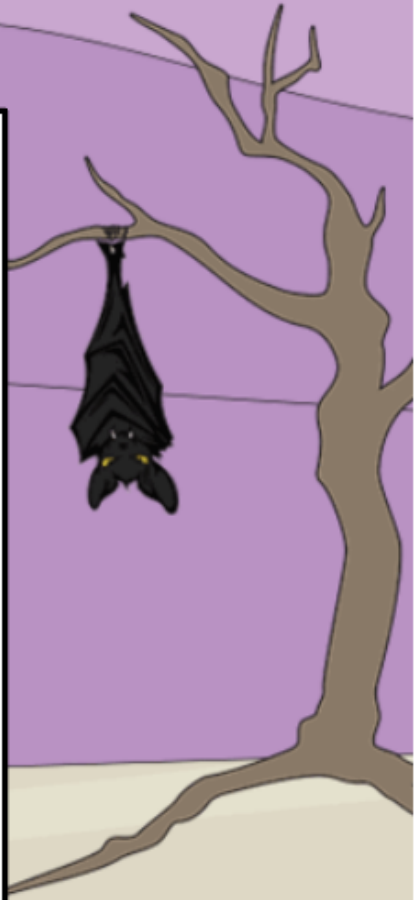

Click on icons related to Ebola: the signs and symptoms of the disease, its causes, treatments or preventive measures.

VALIDATE

Ebola virus disease (EVD),
also known as haemorrhagic fever, is a fatal disease caused by infection with a group of viruses belonging to the genus Ebolavirus.

Video

*Killer diseases: Ebola
History and geography*

*Click on the fruit bat to watch the
video.*

History and geography of Ebola

The disease is caused by an extremely dangerous and deadly virus.

Ebola is part of the large family of haemorrhagic fevers.

There have been 33 epidemics in Africa since its discovery.

The virus circulates permanently in the equatorial forest.

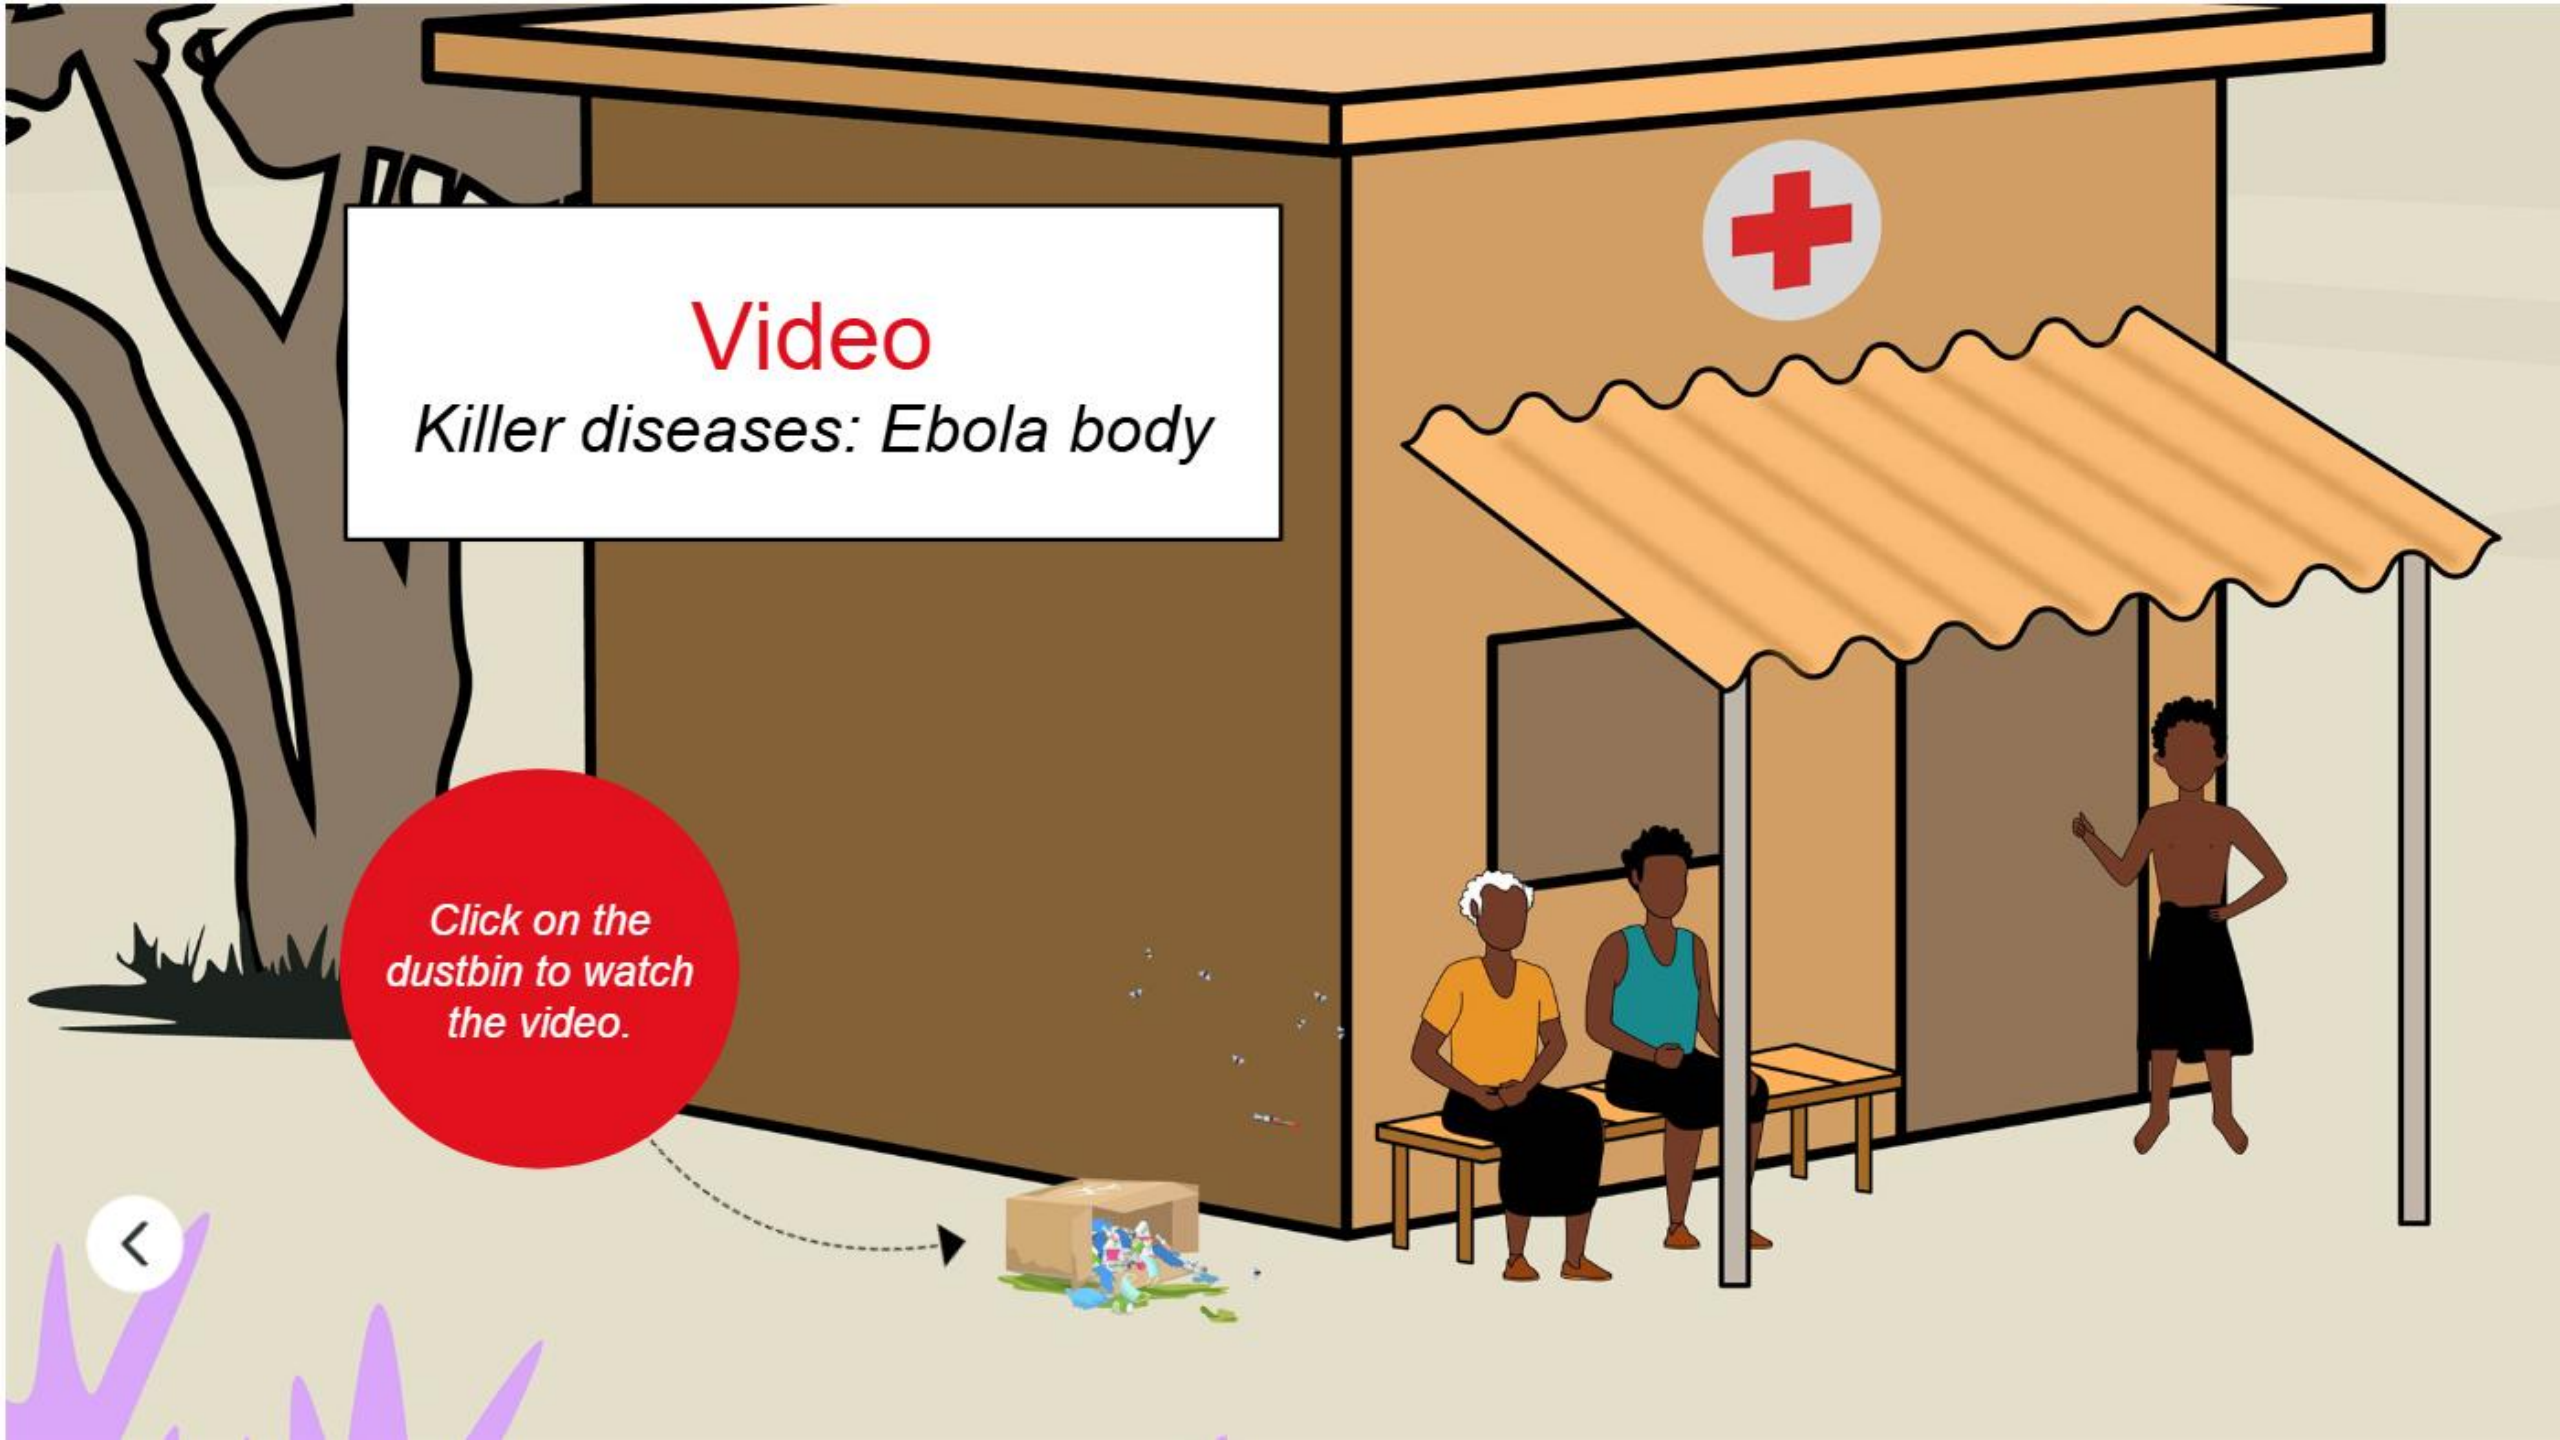

REPLAY

CONTINUE

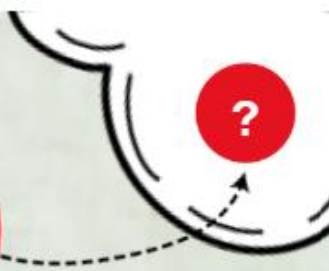

Video

Killer diseases: Ebola body

*Click on the
dustbin to watch
the video.*

Click here at the end of the video.

In 25 to 90% of cases, blood pressure plummets, organs fail, and the infected person dies.

What are the signs and symptoms of Ebola?

Move the correct answers to the box: 4 correct answers

Muscle pain

Water-coloured rice Diarrhoea

Headache

Stiff neck

Fever

Internal and external bleeding

VALIDATE

Muscle pain

Headache

Fever

Internal and external bleeding

REPLAY

CONTINUE

Video

Killer diseases: Ebola Treatment

Click on the contaminated clothes to watch
the video.

How can Ebola be treated and/or the chance of survival of patients be improved?

3 correct answers

PCR test

Treatment with monoclonal antibodies

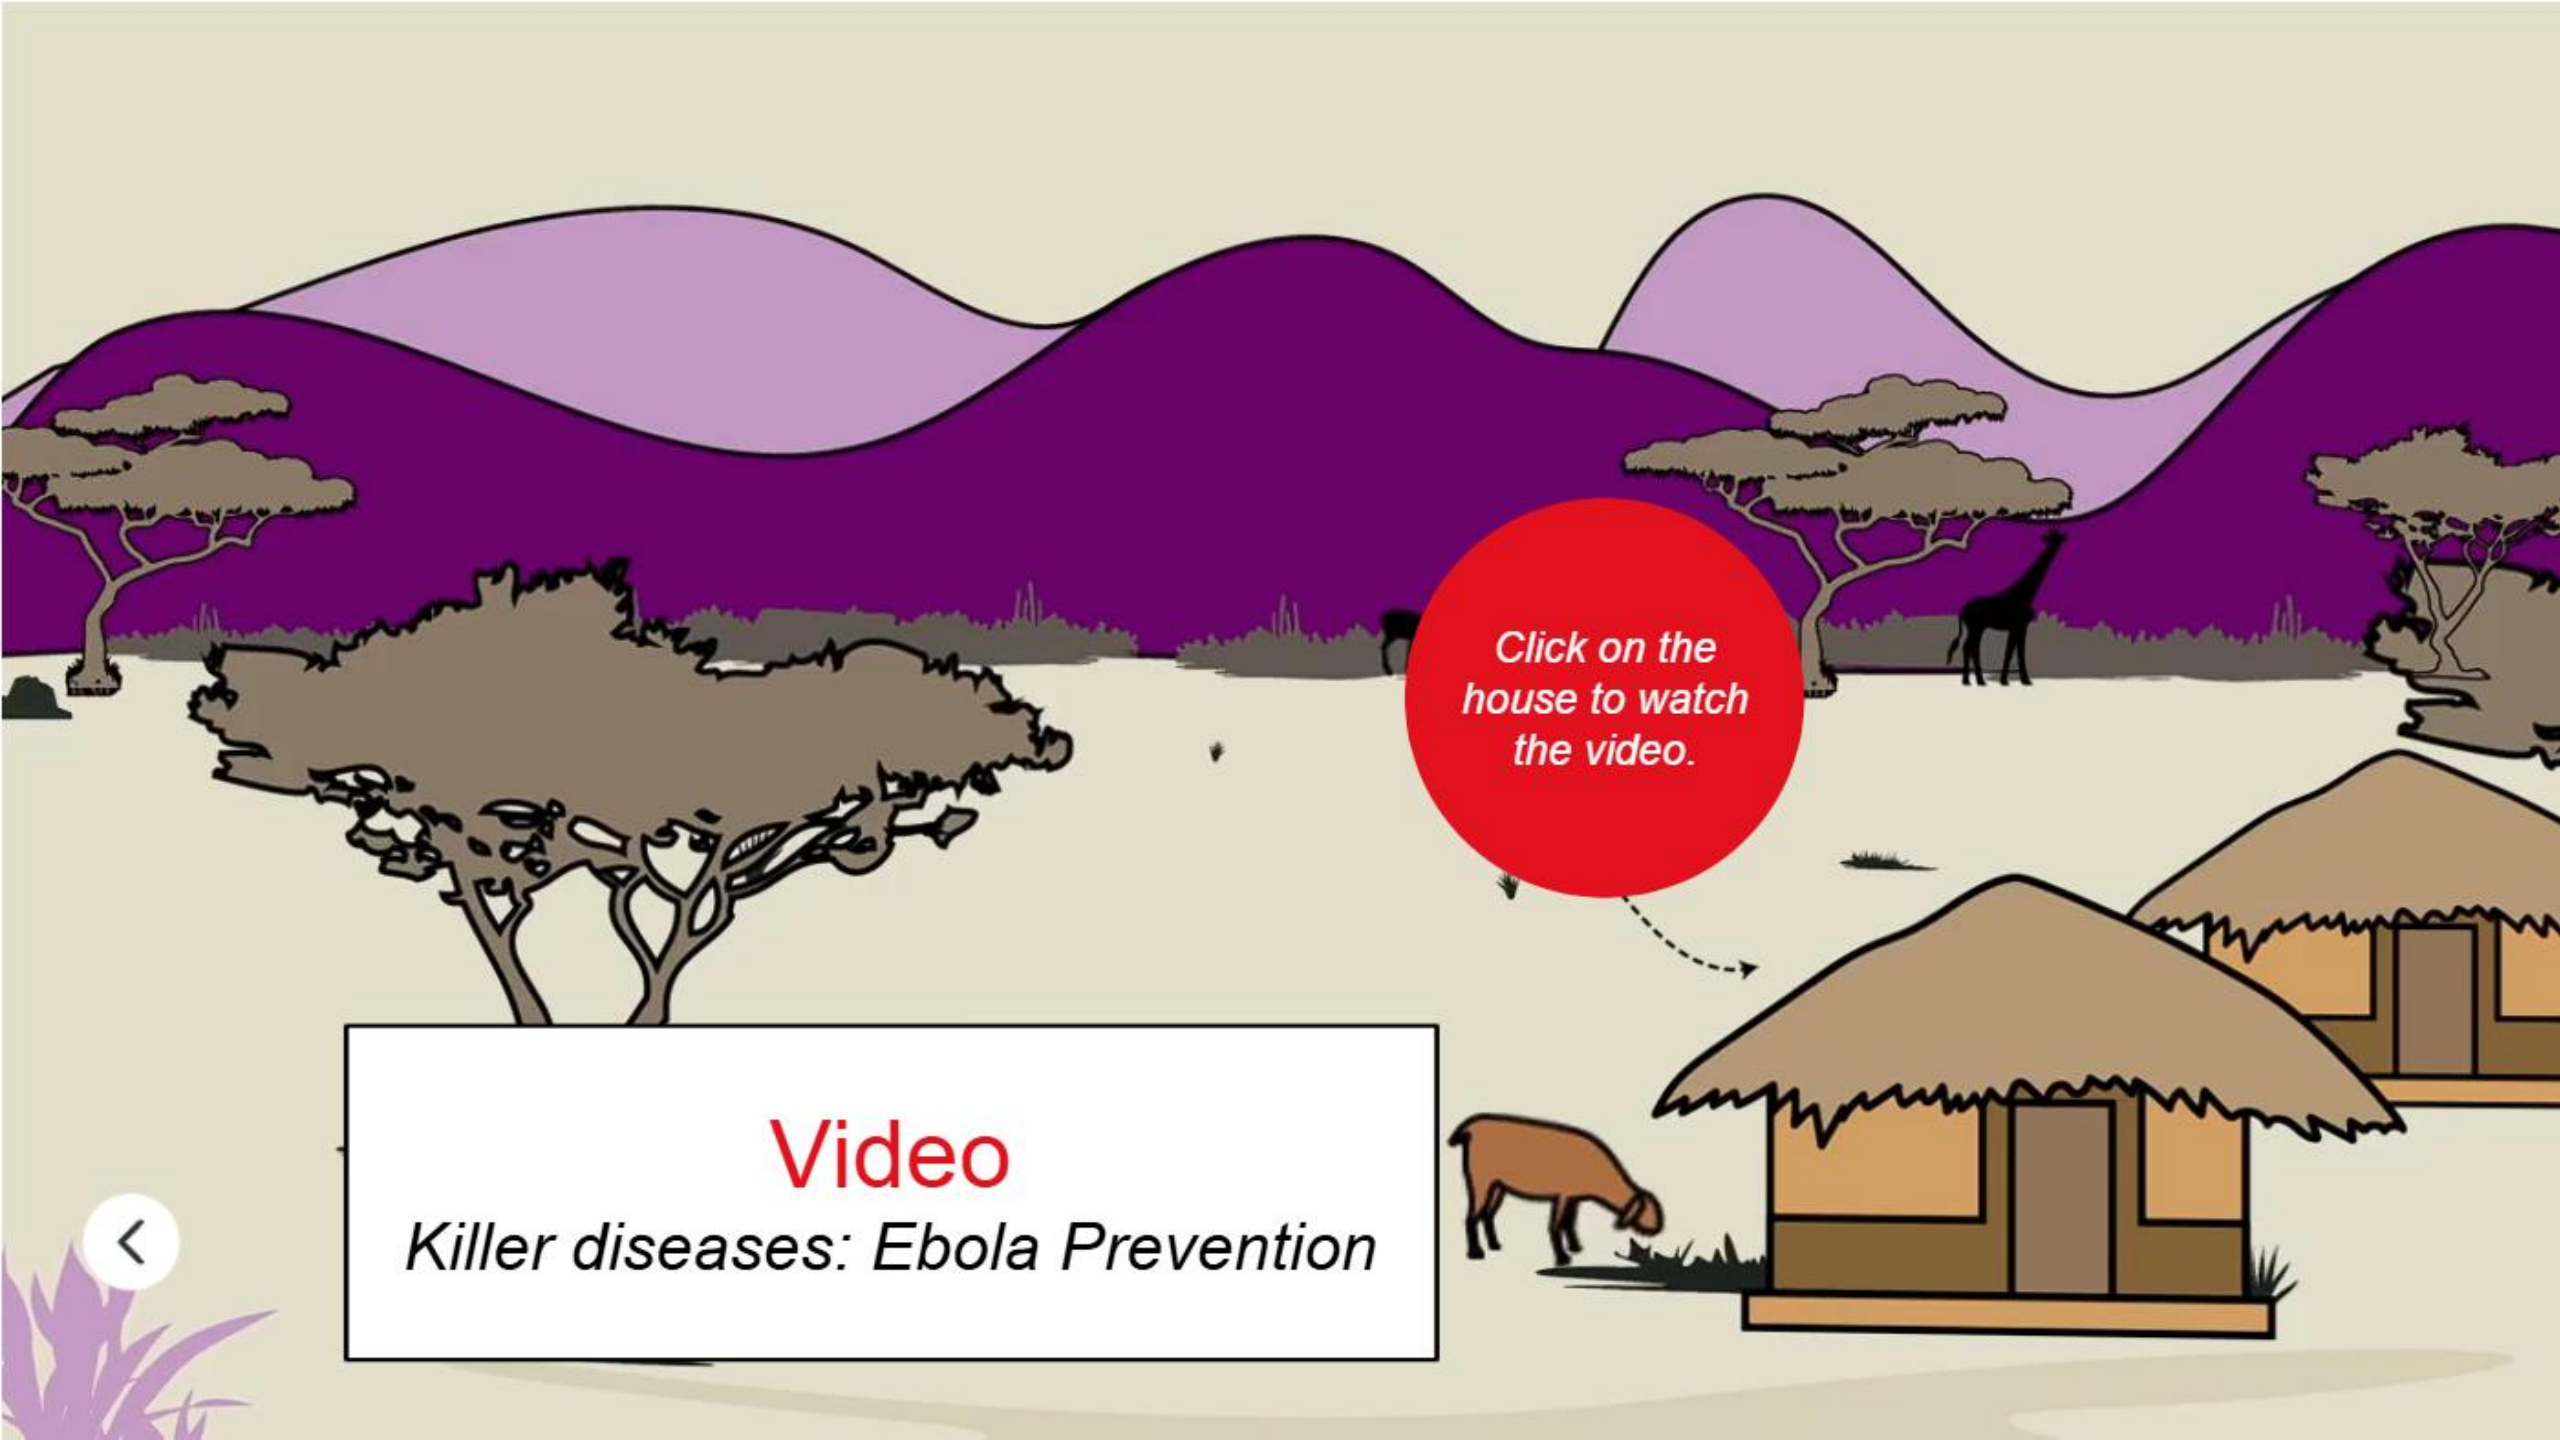

Fluid and electrolyte intake

Surgical intervention

Use of medicines to reduce vomiting, fever and Diarrhoea

VALIDATE

Click on the house to watch
the video.

Video

Killer diseases: Ebola Prevention

Prevention

Isolation of patients is essential to prevent the spread of the disease.

Universal hygiene precautions are the basis for prevention.

Regular cleaning and disinfection of surfaces reduces the risk of contamination.

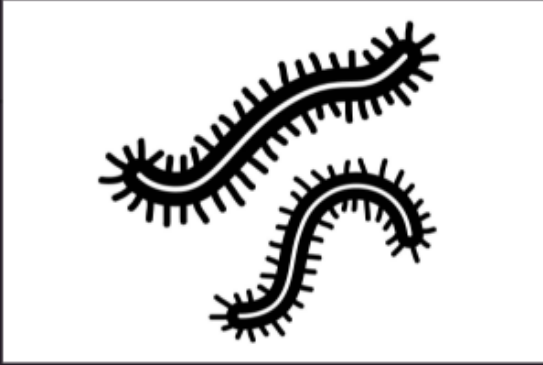

It is essential to wear personal protective equipment while touching an Ebola patient.

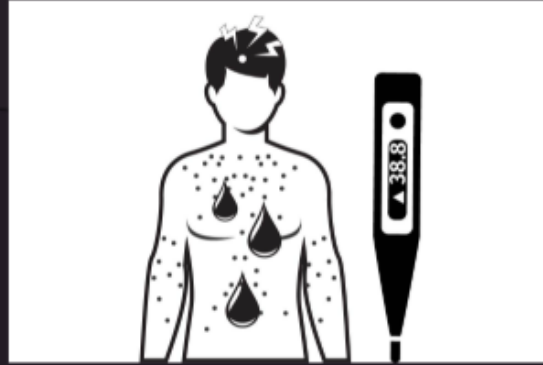

REPLAY

CONTINUE

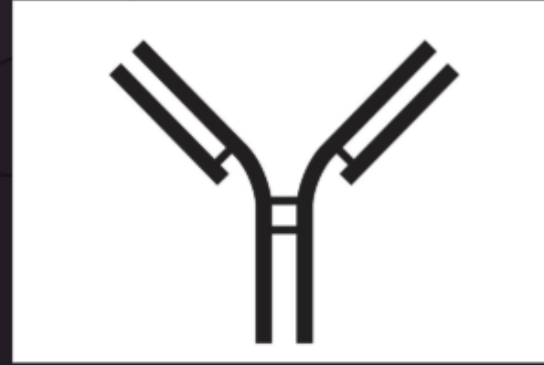

In conclusion

Ebola is a very dangerous and deadly disease.

The main symptoms are the high fever, headache, muscle pain, internal and external bleeding.

A treatment is possible with monoclonal antibodies.

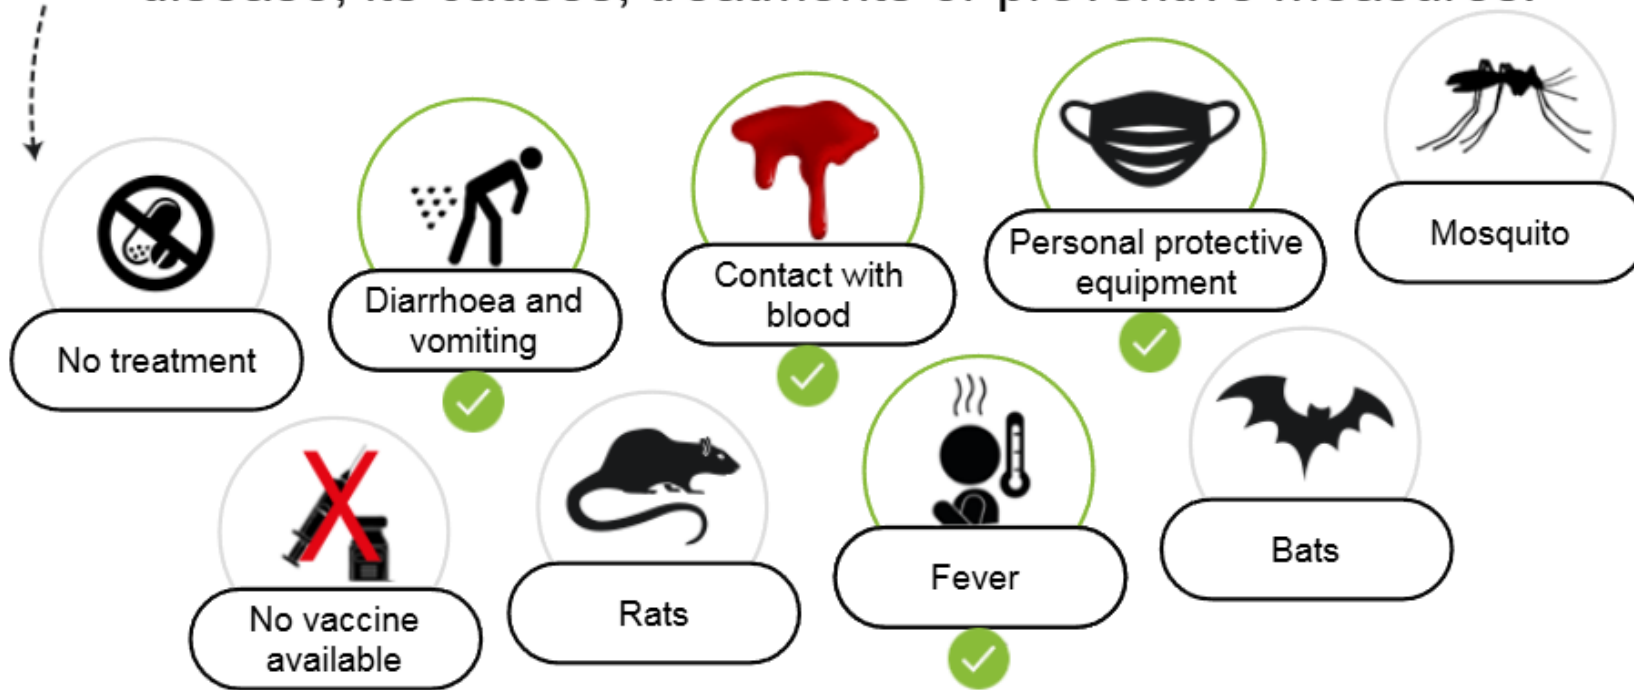

Isolation of patients is essential mean of prevention, as well as using universal hygiene precautions.

CONTINUE

Click on icons related to Ebola: the signs and symptoms of the disease, its causes, treatments or preventive measures.

VALIDATE

Video

Ebola explained in 1 minute

Click on the monkey
to watch
the video.

QUIZ

_____ causes Ebola.

Move the correct answer to the blank: 1 correct answer

A bacterium

A virus

A mosquito

VALIDATE

A virus causes Ebola.

Move the correct answer to the blank: 1 correct answer

CONTINUE